A Monumental 19th Century Baroque Fire Grate

Ref: EB17240

This huge early 19th century Baroque fire grate has decorative iron fire bars set over brass gadrooned fret. The brass standards comprise of large segmented spheres, on ball and claw foot supports with central lion-mask and ring detail. The tall finely cast fire-back depicts three winged cherubs within an oval. The oval is surrounded by leaf and berry with flame and swag features uppermost. Restored with wrought-iron reinforcements to fire back.
