

18TH CENTURY ENGLISH FIRE GRATE (SOLD)

A large 18th century English fire grate, with delicate wrought-iron construction and a copper-seamed brass apron. The cabriole legs are characteristic of Queen Anne and Chippendale furniture; details include foilage, twist-top finials and 'ball and claw' feet. 'Ball and claw' feet represent the Chinese imperial dragon clutching a pearl and became popular in England after 1710.

SKU: OV12120 | Categories: Archive, Sold | Tag: Queen Anne

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Height (ins)	25½"
Depth (ins)	13¼
Width (ins)	24¾

589 Wandsworth Road, London SW8 3JD T: +44 (0)20 7720 2660

www.gibilarodesign.com E: info@gibilarodesign.co.uk