

LARGE CAST-IRON BARONIAL ANDIRONS WITH WRYTHEN EAGLES

A pair of blackened cast-iron Wrythen Eagle andirons with scrollwork. Restored. Originally from a mansion in Southern Scotland. The andirons also have a perpendicular style moulded bar with spiked decorations linking the andirons to make a front grate. Possibly manufactured by The Carron Ironworks, near Falkirk, Stirlingshire, established 1759. Restored.

Circa 1815-20
