

A LATE GEORGIAN POLISHED STEEL FIRE GRATE

A late Georgian polished steel fire grate of serpentine form with fire bars set over steel ball detail and pinnacle finials uppermost. The fluted fret, urn mounts and wings all lined with beaded moulding set in front of a bevelled fire back. Restored.

Height of burning area: 9 1/2"

Width of rear: 24 1/2"

Circa 1820

SKU: EP2030 | Category: Antique Fire Grates | Tag: Georgian

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Height (ins)	27¼
Depth (ins)	17
Width (ins)	39
589 Wandsworth Road, London SW8 3JD T: +44 (0)20 7720 2660
www.gibilarodesign.com E: info@gibilarodesign.co.uk

Material	Polished steel , Wrought-iron
Period	Early 19th century