

BAROQUE-REVIVAL CONSOLE TABLE AFTER A DESIGN BY SERGE ROCHE

A Baroque Revival console table after a design by Serge Roche. The Baroque stylised foliate legs supported on plinth have been sculptured to create a support for the shaped black marble table top. The marble top with white-veins rests upon a composite bed-moulding in black. The console table is in beautiful condition. One of a pair. Circa Late twentieth century

The marble top is 30mm thick.

Max width at base: 6.75"

Serge Roche was a French artist (1898 - 1988) known for his elegant furniture design which was a playful take on Baroque-Revival during the mid-twentieth century. His pieces often featured distressed reflective surfaces to play with light.

SKU: EC2560 | Category: Miscellaneous |

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

589 Wandsworth Road, London SW8 3JN (T: +44 (0) 20 7720 2660)

www.gibilarodesign.com E: info@gibilarodesign.co.uk

Width (ins)	27 1/2
Height (ins)	35 3/8
Depth (ins)	13 3/4

589 Wandsworth Road, London SW8 3JD T: +44 (0)20 7720 2660
www.gibilarodesign.com E: info@gibilarodesign.co.uk